

College Daze

Four students from the same small town in County Kerry have run into each other at Trinity College in Dublin. While getting together over a coffee to reminisce about their home town they discover they are all taking Irish literature and are all currently writing essays, each on a different famous Irish author. Can you determine who is writing about which author, what clubs each belongs to and what year of study they are each in?

1. The person who belongs to Trinity FM Club is not Anna.
2. The one in 3rd year is not Liam.
3. The one who belongs to the Historical Society is in a higher year than Aidan.
4. Either the person who is writing on Joyce or the one who is writing on Beckett belongs to the Philosophical Society.
5. The one who is writing on J.M. Synge doesn't belong to the Trinity FM club.
6. The person who is writing on Oscar Wilde is in a higher year than Anna.
7. Anna is not writing on Joyce and does not belong to the Historical Society.
8. Of Liam and Aidan, one is writing on J.M. Synge and the other is in their 1st year.
9. The person who belongs to the Philosophical Society is Aidan.
10. The one who belongs to Trinity's Players club is not Máirín.
11. The person in 4th year is writing on Oscar Wilde.
